

THE EPHEMERA PROJECT: THE EARLY YEARS

BOOK # 1 / 20

VivaVeggie Society

New York City • circa 1991–2002

e·phem·er·a • noun • plural noun: ephemera

Things that exist or are used or enjoyed for only a short time. Items of collectible memorabilia, typically written or printed ones, that were originally expected to have only short-term usefulness or effect.

Collected and bound in 2014

VivaVeggie Society was a pioneer of vegan advocacy. It was founded and coordinated by Pamela Teisler Rice in 1991 after she adopted the vegan lifestyle. Ms. Rice's epiphany was the result of a vegan conference and later of reading the explosive exposé by John Robbins Diet for a New America. In the beginning almost all VivaVeggie activities surrounded Pamela's "veggie flyer": "101 Reasons Why I'm a Vegetarian." Out she would go with her cohorts to distribute it on the streets of New York City for free. She would get the attention of passersby by wearing a sandwich board that read: "Ask me Why I'm a Vegetarian." On her head would be a stretchy black stocking cap packed with colorful plastic fruit. Street outreach, indeed, continues to this day. But perhaps more significant has been the many other activities Ms. Rice and the VivaVeggie Society have engaged in over the decades since, particularly once the group obtained non-profit 501(c)3 status in 1997. A short list would include (1) providing a vegetarian center in New York City, open consistently since 1999 to the present day (2014), (2) publishing 50 issues of The VivaVine, a top quality magazine that tackled hard news topics indicting the meat industry (3) producing many updated and improved and exhaustive editions of "101 Reasons Why I'm a Vegetarian," and perhaps most impressively of all, (4) organizing the annual Veggie Pride Parade followed by a festive rally/expo in Union Square Park (NYC) with dozens of speakers on two stages, exhibitors, free food, and entertainment. This ephemera marks a distinct moment in time before the Internet took hold and people no longer communicated using paper. If you look close, you'll see a compassionate human spirit bursting out. Enjoy the inspiration. NOTE: This one booklet is but a tiny part of the full collection. And, the entire bound collection is but a small amount of what, in fact, once existed.

Dear Pamela:

I would first like to "THANK YOU" on the article of "101 Reasons Why I'm a Vegetarian". This article has surprised me - the ignorance that we grow up not knowing, kept secrets from government and the producers. It is horrifying to see what is happening, even myself is caught up in this charade and now my three year old son, I'm sorry to say (because of my lack of knowledge).

So I ask you what am I to do? I am not fond of vegetables, but I am willing to at least try my "best", as for my son he is not much of a meat eater, he loves vegetables, especially salads. I do not know much about cooking fresh vegetables, and what are the other alternatives besides eating vegetables three times a day - is let's say for example spaghetti would this be O.K. and what are the do's and don't's to eat?

Sincerely,

Andrea C. ██████████

MARCH 2, 1993

Dear Pamela,

We'd like to thank you for compiling such a thorough & well-organized list of pro-vegan information (101 Reasons Why I'm a Vegetarian).

It was passed on to us by a friend in NY and as of recently we have taken the liberty to make & distribute copies. However, through comparison with other sources, we have come across a rather incredible contradiction that we hoped you could help to clarify. Reason # of your list (from Don't For a New America?) states "9 million (ANIMALS) meet their death at human hands everyday in the U.S.," on the enclosed taped lecture, Dr. Klapper maintains the number is 15 million, and the enclosed BEYOND BEEF pamphlet says "Every day 100,000 cattle are slaughtered in the U.S." Could it be that about 8-14 million chicken, pigs, & fish are killed daily and the notably lower number of cattle can be attributed to their larger size? Could it simply be a careless misprint? Please send us your view of the matter, as we have just received an excess of the pamphlets that we are eager, but hesitant to distribute due to the incorrect(?) information. I'm sure you have learned most meat eaters aren't especially thrilled with the idea of changing their diet. Even one contradiction in fact could give them the grounds they need to justify writing off the idea of vegetarianism.

In closing, we'd truly appreciate any current info you can share. We've been meeting with the still-forming Miami Vegetarian Society and hope to set up communication lines between it & the Viva Veggie Society. We, ourselves, will be returning to NYC by May and hope to be active participants in Viva regie, so please send information in that regard as well.

Best Wishes

Dear Ms. Teisler-Rice,

I work for PETA in Washington and found you listed in our activist network. As you may have heard, our headquarters are moving to Norfolk, Virginia soon. I'm moving to New York instead and hoped you might have tips on finding a vegetarian roommate in the Village area. I'm moving in just a few weeks, so any current info would be greatly appreciated. I'm also interested in the activities of the Viva Vegie Society, as a longtime vegan (strict even by PETA standards!). Also, any leads concerning animal rights/vegetarian related job openings would be great. Thanks so much for your help, and if there is any literature your group needs feel free to drop me a line at PETA.

Dear Pamela,

During a recent visit to New York I learned that some subway tokens I'd acquired on a previous visit are no longer useable. An MTA employee told me that the tokens can be redeemed, but that this must be done in person at 370 Jay Street (I'd check the address before going there), rather than by mail. I seldom get to New York anymore and consequently have little opportunity to take advantage of this offer. Therefore, I'm giving the tokens to you as a gift in the hope that you or a friend can get some value from them.

Yours in vegetables,

Dear Pamela,

Hi! My name is Noel Oco from Canada. I'm writing because I decided to be a vegetarian (Vegan) just last April because of "The 101 reasons to be a Vegetarian" from The Common Ground Magazine. Everything is fine as for me. But my family kept on telling me to eat meat for protein and vitamin B₁₂, which sometimes discourages me to continue my diet. I'm a very active 19 year old guy, cycling to school and even weightlift with friends occasionally and is currently a runner-up of Table Tennis Association of B.C. Are they (my family) telling me the right thing? Or should I ignore them?

One thing for sure, I'm happy with my body (136 lbs.) and vitality. And if possible, because I only have the "35-50 reasons", can you send me a photocopied "101 reasons to be a vegetarian" for me to show my worried family. Enclosed here is a self addressed stamped envelope.

Until here and I'm grateful to be a "veggie."

Wanting your support
with much respect,

Noel Oco

Ahoy! So opportune, your message.

We are meeting next week to mail the newsletter. We stuff, staple, label and stamp about 120 newsletters. Please come on by. We order in vegan pizza from the corner. It's fun, and you'll meet some of the regulars, and get further oriented. We'll figure out if you're made of "the right stuff" :) to do vegetarian street activism. Or just like to help out veg activists. Either way, really, there's a way to "make a difference."

I don't have time to write much, but I'm sending you this batch of info, and I hope that you can help spread the word. Little more than a week to go before this rally and there's a colossal amount of work to be done.

Somehow I've become the main liason btw the NY contingent and the NJ contingent. There's a lot to orchestrate. We're still lining up speakers and lots of names are being thrown around but it's a question of who's available

There will be a meeting of the SOS - ^(SAVE ORGANIC STANDARDS) ^{SUN.} on March 1st at

Pure Foods Campaign on 6th St. Community CTR - 5 PM at the 6th St. ^{aves.} (Btw B + C) phone (212) 529-9720 638 E. 6th St. Afterwards, we're heading to one guy's apt. for a potluck and sign & banner making session.

Please tell anyone who might be interested. They're trying to get BUSES for people coming from NY to the Rally (Leaving from Westchester + the East Village).

We'd love to have Penelo Pea Pod or any other such representatives to add to the impact of the event. Would that be possible? Please let me know. Hope you're well. Diane Talk to you soon! (908) [redacted]

According to the Science of

Dear Pam.

I read about you in the Vegetarian Times & would like a copy of your "101 Reasons Why I'm a Vegetarian". My husband & I have only been vegetarians for a few years and we are so much healthier plus helping to save our planet. We just read "Diet for a New America" by John Robbins. He has a wonderful story.

We have several friends and family whom we have guided in this direction also.

I am enclosing a money order for $1.50. Since I

Dear Pamela -

I saw your ad for
the vitaline newsletter
in a friend's issue of Peta - I've since gone veggie + am trying to get my hands on anything regarding vegetarianism - so far most of the info I've read has been quite helpful
+ positive so I've no regrets about switching over! I love animals as well + really feel good about vegetarianism from that point as well. I'm joining Peta too as I love what

Dear Pamela,

Thanks for so faithfully
sending the Viva Vine to me.

Please take the enclosed to heart and read the entire paper carefully. That is where I have put my heart and all my strength now. Concerning strength there is not too much there. I am still struggling with the effects of my stroke and HBP. But the future looks bright. Think it and believe it !!!

Best of luck to the VRCC. Yes, we need it! —

When I'll find out about your facts in N.Y.C. I'll let you know.

The weather has gotten chilly here around — to my great sorrow.

Blessings and best, best wishes and

Congratulations to you —
I admire you!

Gisela.

Dear Mr. Feister,

I was given your 101 Reasons list by my colon therapist, ^{last month} & my life has not been the same since. After reading how they treat chickens as factory parts I've sworn off chicken (save for free range). I have been off red meat for about 17 yrs - since they served "green sealed" meat in my college dorm. Since then I've been becoming open to books, videos & organizations skimming the ↑
